the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million (1990–1999) and is projected to increase by a further 1.5 million by 2010 (Office for National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop strategies to meet the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (2000) has identified the need to develop a new paradigm of care for the ageing population, one that is based on the concept of 'active ageing'. This paradigm is based on the idea that ageing is a process, not a state, and that the goal of care should be to promote the health and well-being of older people, rather than to simply manage their decline. The Department of Health (2000) has identified a number of key areas for action, including: promoting the health and well-being of older people; supporting older people to live independently; and ensuring that older people have access to the services and resources they need to live well.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK with a long-term condition has increased by 50% (Department of Health 1999). The prevalence of long-term conditions is also increasing in other countries (e.g. Australia, Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, Taiwan, the USA and the Netherlands) (World Health Organization 1999).

113 year old structure takes its final bow

This building is made of much more than the material things such as bricks, mortar, and concrete which a stranger who is only looking on, may see. It has a personality.

The Habart High School building, a part of which has now been standing for 113 years, holds the personality of each of the thousands of teenagers who have passed through it during that space of time. Each generation of teenagers brought its contribution to Habart's high scholastic rating, its fine standing with neighboring schools, its excellent sports records, and the success of our superb music departments.

The spirit of Yohan, an imaginary mascot, was created several years ago by a student who was "doodeling" during his study period. It is a rather vague story as to how Yohan became known among the students; the important fact is that he did. Yohan has always stood for the high standards set forth by the faculty and administration and met by the students; the good sportsmanship displayed in the classroom as well as in the field of sports; and the high ideals of the future citizens of America. He IS the spirit of Habart High.

This year, the last which the students are to spend in this building, has been as rewarding as those preceding it. Many students have received high honors for themselves and the school; some have distinguished themselves in certain fields and are now planning ahead for their future.

Yes, a part of this structure will soon be torn down only to be rebuilt so that room may be made for the fast-increasing enrollment; but by no means are we leaving behind those things for which this building has stood for so long. We are taking them with us so that they may be added to by the future students of Habart High — those who will come and go but will never forget.

Through these doors each day walk the students who are the heart of Hobart High.

Cooking wholesome foods that taste good and have an appetizing appearance proves to be a chore for the girls who are just beginning in foods class. Actual work gives the students experience in a practical way as Vicki Smoll, Susan Taylor, and Judy Pollard are finding out. Also pictured are Mortha McMurtry and Danno Erwin, papping a coke into the oven. The girls not only cook the food, they also make preparations before hand and clean up afterwards.

"Where's my T-square?" If Tam Menefee should ask that question he might be in a little trouble, since the T-square is one of the many instruments that is used in drawing blueprints and he can't afford to lose it. While Tam is working on his drawings, Gilbert Robinsan is measuring the width of a piece of metal. Each boy has his own desk and instruments, and he is taught how to draw houses, garages, and city blocks, showing the different dimensions.

"Read'n, writ'n, and 'rithmetic" used to be taught by the hickory

Looking at the results of their efforts in the dark room are Donny McDowell, Sherry Cosey, and Gloria Adams. Closes combine fun with learning as they develop and print pictures.

Students learn about tropical fish and underwater vegetation in Miss Stewart's biology classes. Here Paul Krouse, Dennis Terry, and Sharan Jones observe the fish in the aquarium while Mary Vanbloircom points them out to the class.

"London Bridge is falling down!" These boys are doing an exercise called "bridging." The purpose of the exercise is to strengthen the muscles in the back of the neck so that the boys won't hurt themselves when they tumble.

"You're late again, young lady!" might be the roar heard from Dick Gerlich, who portrays the irate father of a teen-age girl, Melissa Rifenour. Irene Brada, playing the mother, calmly watches during the skit in family living class.

stick; today we're inspired to use our initiative in the classrooms

T'was a cold winter's morn in Mr. Trammel's first hour government class when the thermometer registered a cool 60°. Coats and heavy sweaters created a somewhat warmer atmosphere.

These building trade boys, Wayne Bauer, Norman Gaverl, Ray Flanigan, and Larry Byers, are diligently working on a metal table for one of the other shops. Their latest project is working on a portable building at Liberty School.

Hard at work on the newspaper, the Ho-Hi Life, is part of the staff who are putting on the finishing touches. Shown are Brent Dickson, Bonnie Hill, Judy Wilson, Carol Kone, and Mary Mortlin.

"But the tree just jumped up in front of the car!" Luckily none of these boys, John Bryon, Ernie Musorik, George Harbison, or Mike Biggs have ever told this to Mr. Farlow.

From ABC to XYZ students go through the alphabet of learning—

Ready? . . . Begin! One of Miss Rebecca Todd's beginning typing classes takes a time test while she watches to see if they have correct posture and habits. Accuracy, as well as speed, is stressed while learning to type.

Mr. Eugene Simmons points out the parts of the piano and their functions to his music appreciation class. This is only one phase of the course. Its purpose is to help students, not especially musically inclined, to learn to appreciate finer types of music.

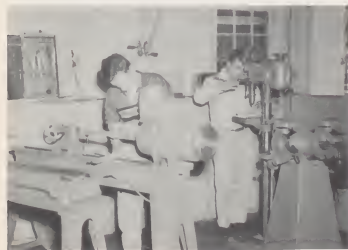

Learning not only goes on in the classroom, but also in the home. Barbara Mitchell has her lessons every day with her bedside teacher, Mrs. Hattie Spivy. Barbara will graduate with the class of '58.

chemistry, biology, typing, journalism fill academic curriculum

Machine shop classes offer boys many chances to gain knowledge in the actual operation of machines. Here, learning to use the equipment correctly are Harry Sink, operating a drill press and Stewart Marlan, carving the leg of a table on a lathe.

"It's finally complete!" This might be the remark of Judy Marris as she displays her project for grading. Carefully pressed and hung, the finished garment is being shown to Elaine Adams and Jane Schwuchaw as the class looks on.

Big bold letters spelling out Dick and Joyce decorated the sides of the car in which Dick Gerlich and Joyce Blackburn, Purple Party candidates, rode. Riding in the front seat are their campaign managers, Tam Welch and Judy Boyd.

The horn-blowing and shouting attracted many townspeople and students during the lunch hour. The parade this year was a typical campaign parade — a lot of fun and a lot of work.

Purple Party victorious! Dick and Joyce led into office by pep Bringing up the rear of the election parade was this Purple Party bandwagon and cheering section. As the wagon, pulled by a farm tractor, went through town, boosters shouted their favorite cheer, "Vote Dick and Joyce. Go Purple".

"Vote Gold" decorated many of the banners displayed in the 1957-58 Mayor and Clerk-Treasurer campaign. Much work in Carol Schmelter's basement provided such signs as the one shown here by Dave Flinn, Carol Schmelter and Vivian Selby.

Janet Ross and Laren Nibbe, qualified Gold Party Candidates, rode in this decorated white Cadillac which led the 1957 campaign parade and were escorted by a motorcycle policeman. Also in the car are Kay Burke and Carol Schmelter, party workers, with Gloria Callaway and Vivion Selby, campaign managers. Each party was allowed five vehicles which were covered with signs and crepe paper. The parade is always a high point in the campaigning.

rally, colorful campaign parade, flying banners, cheering crowds

Election time! Colorful banners throughout the halls of Habart High brought this year's mayor and clerk-treasurer campaign to the eyes of every student. A parade and speeches, given by the candidates on the qualities of leaders, helped to publicize the campaign.

Juniors of last year chose Dick Gerlich and Laren Nibbe as candidates for mayor on the Purple and Gold Parties, respectively; as their running mates the sophomores nominated Jayce Blackburn and Janet Ross.

The polls were open September 16th and 17th with over 1000 students turning out to vote — another step in preparation for future life.

Last year the students voted in representatives from both the Purple and Gold Parties, but this year they went back to a straight ticket with the Purple Party being victorious.

Work of the election was over far all except Dick Gerlich and Jayce Blackburn who took on the duties of mayor and clerk presiding over the student council.

The new Mayor and Clerk-Treasurer, Dick Gerlich and Jayce Blackburn, give their acceptance speeches as Janet Ross and Laren Nibbe look on. The speeches climaxed a week of exciting campaigning and a summer of hard work on banners.

Gerrie Kopko, 1957 Homecoming Queen, symbolized her hoppy reign in red, white, and blue. The roses she carried were red and a touch of white was added in the crown of miniature white mums. Her formal supplied the blue in this trio of colors.

Gerrie Kopko Homecoming Queen; Mechanical float school's 1st

From Bulldogs to hot dogs is a good description of the Senior float and the Homecoming game, because Hobart did "Grind Those Bulldogs." The huge Yahan was made of chicken wire stuffed with crepe paper. Yahan featured a mechanical arm, powered by a battery, turning the handle of the grinder into which a Bulldog had fallen.

The anxious planning of each class for a float and working on them behind closed doors, inaugurated this year's Homecoming activities. A bonfire, pep rally and snake dance aroused spirit for the big game against the Crown Point Bulldogs. The cheerleaders, preceded by the floats and police escort, led the snake dance through town.

Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen received first, second, third and fourth prizes respectively in the float competition.

In a bid for their fifth straight victory, the team led by their co-captains, Dick Gerlich and Dean Eickstead, rushed through a "Win Big Team" sign stretched between a goal post.

During the half, Gerry Kopko began her reign as the 1957 Homecoming Queen. The team honored Queen Gerry with a 21-7 victory over the Bulldogs and at the Homecoming dance she was presented with a white autographed football.

A time to learn about leadership—Hobart High students and representatives from eleven area schools had this opportunity at the third annual leadership conference sponsored by the student council, held October 22nd and 23rd.

There were three sessions during school time and a new night session at which Judge Meszar of the Lake County Juvenile Court spoke, building his talk around the word "Chicken".

Lana Ruegamer and Reed Stewart, this year's Girls' and Boys' State Governors, provided another new treat. The "Qualities of Leadership" was the topic of their speeches.

Movies, discussion groups and other interesting speakers made this year's conference a success. The visitors from other schools were invited to study our conference as a step towards setting up conferences of their own.

Mary Martin, chairman of the hospitality committee, is shown greeting four of our 12 visitors from other schools. The visitors were student council representatives studying our conference to take back ideas for leadership conferences of their own. Hobart students were eligible to attend if they held any high school office.

Hobart's third Leadership Conference is host to 11 area schools

What qualifications should a nominee for office have? This was answered by the panel and the audience who added many important points. On the panel from left are Susan Shane, Glaria Callaway, Loren Nibbe, Pat Evans and Bob Etter.

Joann Clemens, cheerleader, gives her viewpoints on cheerleaders and pep sessions as Vivian Selby, Jahanna Nalcheff, and Bob Etter listen. The group discussions could either discuss one of the topics provided by the student council or any school problem.

Hobart City School System turned over to the seniors for a day

Seniors stepped into the shoes of the school board, administrators, teachers and office help on May 16, Senior Day. This is the fifth year the upperclassmen have had this privilege.

Classes were carried on as usual with all Hobart City Public schools participating, including the junior and senior high, Foreman, Mundell, Liberty, and Ridgeview.

The purpose of Senior Day is to acquaint the upperclassmen with the problems of teachers and the school administration on a typical school day.

May 9 was set aside as Visiting Day when Seniors visited the classes of the teacher whose position they were going to fill.

Judy Brishky, who is taking Mrs. Bailey's place in the library on Senior Day, helps Carolyn Beech find some reference material in an encyclopedia.

Tucking Darinne Klawitter, the Guidance Director, into the sick bed is Jennie Speer who is performing only one of the tasks of Mrs. Shane, dean of girls.

Carnival yields money toward purchase of equipment for students

Penny here, penny there . . . pennies were important, for they counted as a vote apiece to choose our Carnival King and Queen. Bake sales were held to raise money for the candidates and for the last few days of the race a chart showed the standings of the candidates. Each of the four classes were represented. From the left are Judy O'Neal, Vera Storey, Mick Zimny, Queen Karen Voyles, King Scott Wilson, Mary Kay Netzhommer, Wally Bielewicz, Fran Cheverton and Bob Walk.

On carnival night the buzzing rooms of Hobart High held such activities as a sponge and basketball throw, wishing well, spaok hause, senior cafe and, of course, refreshments. The hamerooms were in charge of the activity held in that room. The money that was raised will aid in the purchase of equipment for the student body.

Karen Voyles and Scott Wilson were proclaimed the carnival royalty.

The Seniors' Blue Nose Cafe held many famous star attractions. Some of the celebrities (played by seniors only) were Elvis Presley, The Milk Bar Quartet, Lawrence Welk and his band, torch singers and a boy's chorus line, all of which attributed to an entertaining show.

Looking up a few government terms ahead of time are these Girls' and Boys' Staters who will go to Indiana University this June to learn more about government. Boys will attend June 14 to 21 and girls June 21 to 29. Above ore (front row) Joyce Block-

12 students attend Girls' and Boys' States; 8 in Quill and Scroll

Eight Hobart High students belong to Quill and Scroll, a national honorary organization for high school journalists. Members work on either the school newspaper or yearbook and funds from each pay for the pins each new member receives.

Those in Quill and Scroll are Doug Spongler, Mory Martin, Larry Schaefer; (standing) Carol Hughes, Margaret Prentiss, Brent Dickson, Carol Schmelter, and Gerrie Kopko. All work on the newspaper except Gerrie who is photographer and events editor of the yearbook.

Varsity team chooses Pat Evans as the 1958 Basketball Queen

Reigning as queen for the 1957-58 Basketball Season was Pat Evans, senior. Her all-senior court was Barbara Thomas and Donna Shannon. Escorts, who were members of the varsity basketball team, were Jim Meade, Dwain Crisp, and Chuck Vigland.

What have we here! Habas raiding the Senior locker room? No, only the Seniors on Senior Hobo Day. Getting in on the raid are Bill Fowble, Sally Good, Betty Edgington, Mory Sue Misko, Dove Dickson, Gerrie Kopko, and Judy Ferkinhoff.

"Buy a carnation for Cancer," say Diane Pflughoeft and Margoret Rose to Renee Shannon (left) and Kathy Mika (right). This money-making project was sponsored by the Debuteens and the proceeds were sent to the Cancer Foundation.

At 8 A.M. Wednesday, February 5, Hobart Seniors took over City Hall. This was Government Day.

Government Day had its beginning last year. It is a day when seniors learn more about their city government by doing the work of city officials.

Anyone who wished to take part filled out an application stating their qualifications for the jobs they applied for. Miss Thompson, government teachers, and a student council committee screened the applications until the twenty-seven senior officials were chosen.

In preparation for their work, the city officials, especially the mayor, clerk-treasurer and councilmen, were asked to attend the City Council meeting on January 22nd to see how the business was transacted. Each official was to visit the person he represented to learn more about his job and government classes discussed problems which might be brought to the attention of the city.

According to law — Mayor Fred Rose pointed out to Violet Guess, and Lorry Schaefer, acting Clerk-Treasurer and Mayor, that joy-walking is illegal. Mayor Rose was very helpful to Violet and Lorry on Government Day when explaining their many duties in overseeing the city.

Twenty-seven seniors conduct city business on Government day

Time to take a break! The City Council looks up from its discussion of where street lights are needed in the fast growing residential districts of Hobart. Members of the Council are Loren Nibbe, Gerrie Kopke, Jocelyn Hohn, Clyde Metz, Mayor Lorry

Schaefer, Clerk Violet Guess, Bob Etter, Joyce Burke and Pot Evans. The "acting" city council toured the city to view the street light and road situations with the regular council members, and they also visited the sewage plant.

Mayor Rose took the Seniors and the regular city officials to lunch at Cressmoor Country Club.

Council members spent their day inspecting streets, lights, traffic signs and the sewage plant. Their work was done on Wednesday night after conducting the City Council meeting and acting as a voice for the regular council members.

The boys taking over the fire department staged a fire drill at the high school using a truck and siren to make it realistic. The "firemen" inspected fire extinguishers, turning in a list of outdated ones to Miss Thompson.

Those who took part in Government Day felt it was a worthwhile and educational program, and recommended it be continued next year. They suggested that next year's officials be chosen through a primary election.

Youth of today will soon be the governing power of tomorrow.

Is the police chief locked in his own jail? No, he's just seeing how it feels behind bars—temporarily, of course. Dick Gerlich, a policeman looks on as policemen Dick Morehouse (right) and police chief, Dove Haynes, say, "Let me out!"

Larry Schaefer and Violet Guess preside as Mayor and Clerk

Scrub and rub, make that engine shine! This was one of the jobs of the acting firemen on Wednesday morning. Taking time out to give us a smile are Paul Bartz, Lyle Davis, Nicolo Didonna, Jahn Link and 'Firechief' Tom Welch.

Even city officials have sewage bills to pay. Judy Zimmerman collected money from Scott Wilson, city engineer, Sandro Romsey, city attorney, Jennie Speer, assistant office clerk, and many townspeople in the course of the day in the sewage and water office.

"Showers of Stars" presents singing, readings, pantomimes, skits

"You're my special angel, my little bitty, pretty pet," sing Nancy Bryan, Mary Kuckuck, and Barbara Gilbert. These girls were only three of the stars in the 1958 Talent Show, Shower of Stars. The money from the show went toward a scholarship for a senior.

Dove Dickson, Master of Ceremonies, tries to entice hobo, Dick Gerlich, to stay for the Show, but Dick is in a hurry to return to the "hobo jungle" where he feels more at home!

Oh Charlie! Oh Charlie! pantomimes Suzanne Seed as Dave Flinn and Sheryn Frazier proceed to hide behind Dave's hat. This act took us back to the flappers of the roaring twenties and concluded the Talent Show.

'Parisian Paradise' finds couples dancing beneath Eiffel Tower

"Let's sit this one out; how about it!" say a few couples as they flip off their dancing shoes for a minute to take a seat beneath the Eiffel Tower. Pat Evans, Larry Schafer, Mary Kay Netzhammer, Bruce Phillips, Mary Martin, and Jim Herrick, three of the hundred and eight couples attending the Prom, agreed it was fun dancing but was sure hard on the feet! Many couples also enjoyed gathering around the punch bowl.

A hundred and eight formals, corsages, and tuxedos filled Hotel Gary's Crystal Ballroom, Saturday, May 3rd at the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Couples danced to the music of Bud Pressner and his orchestra in a "Parisian Paradise."

Decorations were in different shades of purple. Blue spotlights turned a six foot Eiffel Tower, constructed of chicken wire and pink napkins, into a lavender delight. The mezzanine was decorated with white branches, ribbon confetti, and various colors of pipe-cleaner birds in cages. After the Grand March, couples drifted to their favorite eating places.

Prom Royalty, Scott Wilson and Betty Edgington, walked up a white carpet to take their place of honor before leading the Grand March. Looking on are Margaret Bonoski, Claudio Quinlan, junior class president, and Sandy Leo.

We Came, We Saw, We'll Never Forget . . .

Service clubs, social clubs, honorary organizations such as National Honor Society, and Student Council, the student governing body of the school, have always played a big role here at Hobart in developing the well-rounded and mature individual.

These groups give us chances to become better acquainted with our fellow classmates and they help us to learn how to work and get along with others. Also, they give us certain goals to reach, and they teach us to accept and carry out responsibilities.

Spring cleaning? Yes, these girls are busier than ever, giving the band portable's library a general cleanup. The school term is nearly over and the books, music, etc. are being put up for the summer. The librarians were Rita McDonald, Joyce Griesel, Diane Pflughaupt, and Peggy Farrell.

The 1957-59 Concert Band members are: Phyllis Carrall, Margaret Mackenzie, Carole Hughes, Danna Hustan, Joyce Griesel, Anabel Stafford, David Taylor, Judy Thompson, Linda Kubiak, Dee Ballantyne, Sharan Dwight, Cecelia Brown, Bob Hodsden, Darlene Paul, Judy Hurley, Nick Marganelli, David Thompson, Lean Edwards, Brianne Ballantyne, Susan Shane, Daniel Davis, Peggy Farrell, Janice Beveridge, Susan Taylor. Also, Kathy Karageorge, Sharan Johnson, Daris Schavey, Pat Selzer, Janet David, Kay Thiede, Barry Gamblin, Harold Eilts, Wilbur Regier, Charles Kelly, Richard Hamman, Cliff Sherrard, Mary Kitterman, David Lewis, Bill Fleming, Dennis Coates,

The concert band tried something new this year when they presented a special convo for the student body. They featured what Mr. Webb terms as "people music", or in other words, popular music. Some of the numbers they played were songs from the New York stage play "Lil' Abner", the COLONEL BOGEY MARCH from "Bridge on the River Kwai", PORT AU PRINCE, and THE SWINGING SHEPHERD BLUES. Since this convocation was accepted so enthusiastically by the students and faculty, it may become an annual event.

Some of the more cultured music presented by the band this year were SYMPHONY #5 FINALE by Shastakovich; WOTAN'S FAREWELL and FIRE CHARM MUSIC from "The Valkyries"; COSI FAN TUTTI by Mozart, and Gold's PAVANNE.

At each of the concerts the band featured several soloists. The cor- net soloist for one concert was Dick Hansen; clarinet, Carole Hughes, Bill Gentz on trombone and Linda Ku- biak, the flute. Susan Shone, who plays the French horn, and Dee Bal- lantyne, flute player, did a duet at the spring concert. All of these band members are seniors and by next year Mr. Webb will have to replace them with other talented performers.

The band wound up their year with the annual tour during which they presented concerts in different cities. The tour is the long awaited high-light of the year.

A combination of extremely fine talent accounts for the fine sounds that come from this clarinet ensemble. Appearing in this quartet were Phyllis Corral, Margaret McKenzie, Carole Hughes, and Danno Huston. Their performances were included in the band's Midwest tour. Each of these girls are seniors and outstanding members of the band.

"Around the World in 80 Days" can be almost as fantastic on experience as it sounds, but when you hear this piece of music being played by the Habart High School marching band it really has the effect of sending you that far in a very short time.

The formation chosen by the band and Mr. Webb for this piece was a huge balloon ascending into space to carry the music "around Brickie Bowl in a split second." All of this activity by the band took place during the half-time of a home football game.

1957-58 Marching Band accents victorious football season; wins

Another favorite ensemble to be given much credit is the flute quartet. These four girls were equally as busy as the many other band ensembles. Winning state recognition was also an honor for this quartet consisting of Dee Ballantyne, Linda Kubiok, Judy Thompson, and Susan Taylor.

"Long live the queen" is fully expressed here by the band.

What could be more appropriate for a marching band formation at the crowning of a homecoming queen than the representation of her crown. The Hobart High School band goes into this formation each year for the coronation. Directly in the center of the "crown" the 1957-58 queen received this honor. To set the mood for this occasion the band chose to play the ever-popular "Fascination."

state-wide recognition

Year after year the marching band comes up with some unique performances and formations. This year, too, they displayed the talent for which the Hobart High School Marching Band is noted.

Commemorating Miss Thompson's summer trip around the world, the band played "Around the World in 80 Days." Then they took a trip on the water as they played "Row, Row, Row, Your Boat."

When the band got word of the new school that the students will move into next year, they set fire to the old one by means of lights on their hats. Meanwhile they played "I don't Want to Set the World on Fire." As a fitting climax to the year they formed a crown for the 1958 Homecoming Queen at the Homecoming game.

Proudly looking on as the marching band prepares for one of their football half-time performances are Mr. Webb, the band director, and the band officers: Sharon Dwight, president; Carolyn Johnson, band sponsor; Darlene Paul, vice-president; Dee Ballontyne, secretary; and Bill Morrison, equipment manager.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

A Cappella Choir's attire takes on

Tom Welch, Mary Martin, Kay Burke, Jocelyn Hahn, and Janet Fleming watch Dorinne Klawitter, secretary, as she goes over the books in search of the A Cappella choir's annual candy sales report. The candy sale is important to the chair because through it they are able to finance their annual tour.

Hobart High School is proud of its A Cappella Choir and it is easy to see the reason why. Under the direction of Mr. Gene Simons, the choir has worked diligently to achieve a perfection which is not often found in a high school choir.

After each graduating class leaves, A Cappella becomes somewhat smaller in size and at the beginning of every year the choir has to start all over again to reach its goal. This year the old and new members performed together for the first time when they sang BLESS THE LORD and HOW GREAT ALMIGHTY at the Thanksgiving Convo.

The choir presented their annual Music for Christmas concert on December 12th in the Lutheran Auditorium. They sang several seasonal selections which included MARY HAD A BABY, PAT-A-PAN, and THE BURT CAROLS.

Two candy sales were held this year to earn money for their spring tour. The students put forth a lot of effort to make these sales a success.

Springtime means taur-time to the Habart High A Cappella Choir members. Judy Zimmerman, a member of the choir for two years, informs Chuck Walker, Mary Sue Miska, Gerrie Kapka, Jim Lake, and Mickey Zimny, first year members, that the taur will be nothing short of great. Everybody is impatiently waiting for the moment to board the chartered buses and be on their way.

new appearance during Spring Tour

On the tour they stopped at Indiana University and several high schools to perform for students there. The choir members stayed one night in Indianapolis and the other on the University campus.

The choir had a new look about it on tour this year; instead of the familiar purple and gold robes, the girls were attired in powder blue sheath dresses. The fellows wore black slacks and white shirts with vests and black ties trimmed in blue to match the girls' dresses. These outfits were worn for novelty numbers only; when the students prepared for a religious song they again put on their choir robes.

Assisting the choir in its many local performances and on tour were a fine group of officers. Donna Shannon served as student director, Jocelyn Hahn, fund-raising chairman, Kay Burke, publicity; Tom Welch, equipment manager; Mary Martin, historian; Melissa Ritenour and Janet Fleming, librarians; and Dorrine Klawitter, secretary, who worked hard on all choir business.

Mr. Gene Simans, director; Donna Shannon, student director; and Pat Evans, accompanist: these three people put in many hours of their own time toward planning and preparing for the success that the A Cappella Choir attains throughout the year.

Sextet, Madrigal Group represents Hobart in the State Contests

The A Cappella Madrigal group displayed these beaming faces after taking a second place in the state contest. The members of this mixed ensemble are front row: Judy Bayd, Judy Zimmerman, Donna Shonnon, Janet Fleming. Second row: Jocelyn Hahn, Jennie Speer, Ron Sowinski, Leon Mann. Third row: Les Porter, Wayne Teague, Dove Dickson, and Ed Goff.

The Glee Club Sextet is selected from among the girl's glee club classes. They are chosen to represent the Glee Club in various programs and participate in the state contest held for all music students. Mrs. Willson spends much time outside of class helping these girls to get ready for their performances. This year's sextet included Corole Hughes, Sandy DeMeyer, Elaine Carpenter, Judy Peterson, Libby Furnish, and Florence Tabaada, not shown.

Glee Club performs for seasonal Christmas and Spring Concerts

After weeks of hard work and practice, the Girls' Glee Club gave their first performance of the year at the Thanksgiving Convo held in Roosevelt Gym. They sang BLESS THIS HOUSE and LIFT THINE EYES. Both songs were excellently presented and received with great enthusiasm.

The Thanksgiving Convo was only the beginning, for no sooner had they laid aside the music for that occasion than they had to begin preparation for Christmas. They performed this time for the freshmen, singing SILVER BELLS, CANTIQUADE NOEL, WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS, and IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS.

The music for the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert were the big events of the year for the girls. Once again the Glee Club proves a credit to the music department.

Throughout the year Carole Hughes has been a big help to Mrs. Willson, director of the Girl's Glee Club. They work together to present fine music to their many audiences. Mrs. Willson, a fan of Fred Waring's has composed many songs herself. Carole, a senior, has accompanied the Glee Clubs for three years and has won honors in state contests.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

PRESIDENT — LOREN NIBBE
 VICE PRESIDENT — BOB ETTER
 SECRETARY — JOCELYN HAHN
 TREASURER — RON JOHNSON
 HISTORIAN — MARY KITTERMAN

The National Honor Society is an honorary service organization. Members are selected each year on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Two inductions are held annually, one in the spring and one in the fall.

A spaghetti supper was given by the society at the beginning of the second semester honoring those students who maintained a 2.5 grade average. An honor certificate was also awarded by the society members to any student with a 2.0 grade average.

The National Honor Society officers were kept busy averaging the grades of the juniors who are eligible for NHS next year. As Jocelyn Hahn takes the records of the juniors from the files, Bob Etter, Laren Nibbe, Mary Kitterman, and Ron Johnson look on.

NHS honors students who have 2.5 average at spaghetti supper

Bob Etter, Jim Moore, Norman Hill, Ron Johnson, Clyde Metz, Jennie Speer, Carol Kane, Judy Brishky. Not shown: Sandra Ramsey.

Approximately twelve percent of the class were inducted into the NHS last fall.

It's hard telling what these Student Council members are up to now but you can be sure it is something that deserves all of the attention that Claudia Quinlan, Tam Hawke, Kathy Mika, and Sandy Lea are giving it.

It's not easy to find the right teaching positions for everyone on Senior Day, but Loren Nibbe, Larry Schaefer, and Bob Etter, chairman of this Student Council committee, seem to have the job well under control.

Student Council revises code for nominating the class officers

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the student governing body of Hobart High. It has many duties and sponsors numerous worthwhile activities, one of which is the annual Leadership Conference which was held for the third time this year.

They also sponsored Dress-Up Day and Carnation Day, Government Day, Senior Day and an annual Talent Show. The proceeds of the Talent Show go toward a scholarship for a deserving senior.

The Student Council has been a representative of democracy in this school for many years.

Hard at work setting up qualifications for class officers and revising rules for the nominating committees are Jacelyn Hohn, Bob Walk, Lorry Snyder, Sharon Johnson, and Gerrie Kapka. All class officers must have a 1.75 grade average or better and no student may run for an office for more than two years. These rules are essential for the selection of good officers of each individual class.

G. A. A.

PRESIDENT — KATHY McKNIGHT
VICE PRESIDENT — LIBBY FURNISH
SECRETARY — JERILYNNE LAYER
TREASURER — GERIE KOPKO

Sportsmanship, leadership, and health are the key words of the Girl's Athletic Association. Many sports, from basketball to archery, are enjoyed plus special swimming parties. A picnic at Dunes State Park opened the events of the year and served as an informal initiation of new members.

G. A. A. girls and others danced in a "Hawaiian Twilight" at the G. A. A. Semi Formal on November 25.

A yearly event sponsored by this club is the Girl's In and Out Game where the girls show the boys their basketball skill.

Another year of success has passed for the members of G. A. A. Libby Furnish, vice-president; Jerilynne Loyer, secretary; Kathy McKnight, president; Joyce Blackburn, sports head; and Gerie Kopko, treasurer, are summing up the activities of the year by figuring out the number of credits earned by each of the members.

Couples dance to theme 'Hawaiian Twilight' at GAA semiformal

There seems to be plenty of activity at the regular Wednesday meeting of the G. A. A. The center of attraction on this particular night appears to be volleyball. Getting this ball over the net could be the turning point or climax of the game for Janet Kraft, Elizabeth McLochlan, and Pat Zickuhr.

DEBUTEENS

PRESIDENT — SUSAN SHONE

JUNIOR VICE PRESIDENT — JANET JONES

SOPHOMORE VICE PRES. — LINDA MILLS

SECRETARY — KAREN WARD

TREASURER — CAROL SCHMELTER

Calling all girls! Calling all girls! Are you interested in improving your social poise and working with others? Then Debuteens is the club for you. Debs plan and participate in many social activities. The annual semiformal, this year's "Sweetheart Swirl" held February 1 in the K of C Ballroom, was the biggest event sponsored by the Debuteens.

The Debs also sponsor such drives as Bundle Drive, Carnations for Cancer Day, and this year they contributed to the Polio Fund.

Debs semiformal, honor banquet, and style show hi-lite the year

"Spring Forecast of Fashion", theme of the third annual Mother-Daughter Style Show and Teo, was presented by the Debuteens Club.

The loveliest fashions were chosen to be modeled; from party dresses to lounging pojomos, there was something to flatter every girl. It was a new experience for some, and a wonderful opportunity for all who were chosen to model. Marge Banaski, Donna Shannon, Sheryn Frazier, and Mary Martin were four of the twelve lucky models.

Brickie Buttons—to boost our teams—were sold by the Booster Club this year. The money raised went toward financing the cheerleader's outfits and other expenses. Judy Freeland, vice-president, and Pat Evans, president, set a good example by purchasing their buttons from members Violet Guess and Carol Potts.

Boosters' first card section makes debut at Gary Roosevelt game

The Brickies must be on their way to another victory! At least that's the way it appears from the happy looks on the faces of these Booster Club members. They are the girls who have faithfully followed our football, basketball, and track teams through their '57-'58 season.

BOOSTERS CLUB

PRESIDENT — PAT EVANS
VICE PRESIDENT — JUDY FREELAND
SECRETARY — VIVIAN SELBY
TREASURER — CAROL KANE

Do you have your Booster Button? The selling of these pins to raise money and at the same time promote school spirit, was one of the biggest projects of the Booster Club this year. The club also sold miniature cheerleader and football player dolls.

For two of the home football games, a card section was formed. Habart was spelled out in purple with a white background. The Boosters wore white blouses and formed a block for many of the basketball games.

CHEERLEADERS

Victory! Victory! That's our cry. It is indeed the cry of not only the Cheerleaders representing Hobart High but of the enthusiastic students who follow them in this yell and many more.

There are five varsity, five reserve, and three substitute cheerleaders whose selection is based on their poise, rhythm and actions. The girls trying out are screened by a chosen committee. Fourteen of these girls are selected by the committee to perform before the entire school. The student body then casts the final vote.

Jaann Clemens, Daris Navatny, Gerrie Kapka, and Gloria Suarez, the Varsity cheerleaders, have a right to look happy after cheering for one of the highest ranking football teams in the state and also, one of the most promising basketball teams — the Brickies of HHS, of course! Not shown: Charlotte Banker.

Cheerleaders leading students in yells urge teams on to victory

Pep and enthusiasm described this year's reserve cheerleaders very well. Sandy Lea, Martha Hartman, Ruth Marcani, Carol Crawley, and Gwen Welch cheered their reserve football and basketball teams on to victory in their '57-'58 season.

Janice Eaton, Cindy Ballag, and Sharan Campbell served as this year's substitutes for the varsity and reserve cheerleading squads. These girls cheered at basketball and football games when the regular cheerleaders could not attend.

ART CLUB

President—Suzanne Seed
Vice President—Steve Rice
Treasurer—Sally Adams
Secretary—Marge Cisman

Don't be a drooder! Learn to draw. This is one of the many cries which instilled enthusiasm in students to learn more about art. The Art Club was reorganized this year to foster interest in art among the students of Hobart High.

The annual trip to the Art Fair was planned to increase the member's knowledge of art. The Art Club's project of making enameled jewelry proved to be very worth-while.

Students interested in art and dramatics reorganize the clubs

DRAMATICS CLUB

President—Sheryn Frazier
Vice-President—Kathy McKnight
Secretary—Dee Ballantyne
Treasurer—Gloria Suarez

Dramatics Club is back to stay, we hope. This is the feeling of many Hobart High students toward this newly reorganized club.

Each member has a real interest in drama; whether it be acting, property work, make-up, stage technique, or just wishing to be behind the scenes, there is a place for everyone. Two successful plays were presented by the Club this year to various groups.

Dolly Tsocrias has made a petition to be used for her role in "The Trouble with Mothers". Peggy Tucker and Mary Koy Berg find this quite interesting. Pot Warkmon is ready to prompt these members of the cast.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

President—Joyce Burke

Vice-President—Pat Wood

Secretary—Violet Guess

Treasurer—Betty Edgington

The Future Teachers of America is a service club—service to the teachers and other students. The members take over classes in the high school, junior high, and the elementary schools.

The main activity of FTA is to help at Back-To-School-Night. The members assist the parents and teachers in every way possible.

Violet Guess looks over reports handed in by the delegates, John Botzel, Wanda Andrews, Glorio Calloway, and Kathy McKnight, who attended the Northern Indiana Convention for FTA members. The purpose of the convention was to nominate officers for this area. John was nominated for Vice-President.

FTA, FBLA members learn more of possible future professions

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

President—Johanna Nolcheff

Vice-President—Rita McDonald

Secretary—Margaret Neill

Treasurer—Pat Yurchak

Through the activities of the members of the FBLA Club, all "future business leaders" get an inside glance into the business world. Any student planning to make a career in business is urged to join FBLA.

The members met and talked to many leading businessmen of Hobart and the surrounding area. They also took field trips to some of the leading manufacturing companies. The National Convention in April for all Future Business Leaders of America brought the year to a successful close.

Johanno Nolcheff, Deonno Maxwell, and Marilyn Oswald, members of FBLA, want to earn their way to the annual business convention. How? Grading papers. By grading papers for teachers they earn points so that they may attend the convention.

These are the boys who are seen at Hobart High's social functions, helping people to their seats. The parents of the football players agree that the ushers are really tops when it comes to finding their reserve seats at the games.

USHERS CLUB

The Ushers Club is quite different than any of the other organizations at H. H. S. They have no special activities or means of providing entertainment; their main purpose is the reserving of seats, paid for in advance, at certain school events and to conduct the people to their seats.

This is not so small a task as it may sound, and the boys in Ushers Club render a much needed service. You will always find the members polite and ready to help.

Ushers, Audio-Visual render services to students and faculty

AUDIO VISUAL

Audio Visual is one of the service clubs here at Hobart. The club holds meetings in the fall only as long as it takes those wishing to belong to learn how to operate the equipment. Class schedules of all members are printed and given to the teachers. The boys can be called upon at any time by a teacher to set up the projector and run a movie that they may want shown to their class.

Although the Audio Visual Club is known for helping teachers show movies, learning about tape recorders is another objective of the club. Demonstrating their ability to operate this tape recorder are Floyd Rogers, Harold Erwin, Marvin Monteuffel, Jan Howard, and Bob Haas.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

President—Lydia Strouse
Vice-President—Gail Jenkins
Secretary—Arlene Sayka
Treasurer—Lucille Schultz

A true display of enthusiasm has laid a foundation for a more sound and advanced FHA at Hobbart High. This year the club had the honor of joining the National Association. This accomplishment has enabled the club to attend lectures, style shows, and other planned programs at various surrounding universities.

Its own activities include an annual bake sale, helping the Debuten Clubs on Carnation Day, and each member is responsible for a project each semester.

Lydia Strouse, president of the Future Homemakers of America, has just completed her semester project. Diane Pflughaeft, Ernestine Seomon, and Gail Jenkins all seem to agree that Lydia should be very proud of her work.

A semester project is required from each member of FHA.

Clean-Up Parties, projects — events of Librarians and FHA

LIBRARIAN'S CLUB

President—Joyce Burke
Vice-President—Judy Brishky
Secretary—Dolores Kramer
Treasurer—Pat Yurchak

Whether hunting for reference material for English or looking for a good novel to read, there is always a girl from the Librarian's Club to help find it. The purpose of this club is to supply the students and faculty with the books and reading material desired.

The Librarians have a clean-up party every six weeks when the cleaning and arranging of the books are done. The initiation, Valentine party, and Senior Farewell are the social events of the year.

Dust the books! Arrange the books! Read the books? The members of the Librarians Club have many clean-up parties in order to keep the library in good condition.

PRESIDENT — NORMA HILL
VICE PRESIDENT — JUNE LA FEVRE
SECRETARY — MELISSA RITENOUR
TREASURER — BRENT DICKSON

Are you aware of all the important events taking place in the scientific era we are living in? What is the whole story behind "sputnik"? Well you can learn all these things and more by becoming a member of the Science Club.

This year the club saw films on atoms and other scientific subjects heard reports on skin diving the I. B. M. machine, and unidentified objects. They also took a field trip to the Museum of Science and Industry.

Can you imagine what these "enthusiastic science patrons" are up to now? Well, there isn't the slightest hint of an idea in evidence, but whatever it may be Brent Dickson, June LaFevre, Morge Prentiss, and Norman Hill seem to know what to do.

The Science Club sponsors field trips to increase the members' knowledge of science.

Target practice, field trips, head Boys' and Science Clubs events

BOYS' CLUB

PRESIDENT — GIB ROBINSON
VICE PRESIDENT — CHUCK LAKE
TREASURER — ARNIM WHISLER

The Boys' Club is now in its third year of existence at Hobart High. It was organized in order to arouse the interest of boys in various sports and activities. The main activity is target shooting. Boys who qualify receive a badge and a Ranger Rating in the National Rifle Association. Target shooting is practiced in the basement of the Hobart branch of the Gary National Bank. The boys also see various movies concerning outdoor life.

An all-day outing was enjoyed this spring by many of the members.

Following Mr. Hunt's instructions proves to be quite effective. Terry Lee seems to know exactly what to do. Observing Terry's technique are Bob Rieck and Bob Rans. The members of Boys' Club have the opportunity to learn about rifles and to practice target shooting.

SPANISH CLUB

PRESIDENT — BARBARA GILBERT
VICE PRESIDENT — LARRY JOLIFF
SECRETARY — SUE REMUS
TREASURER — SHARON FIFIELD

Pizza at a Spanish Club party? Yes, due to a mix-up in arrangements, the club turned "Italian"!

The Spanish Club's purposes are to acquaint its members with each other and to introduce the ancient European country's customs to the interested club members. In so doing, a colorful and meaningful picture of Spain is presented.

So you see, the Spanish Club is not only educational but is also a social organization. It is open to all Spanish students who want to take part in it and its activities.

"Caramba! Espanol es un lingua muy difcil," says Nelson Leman to Elaine Plotkin and Marilyn Oswald, as they cram before going into Spanish class. The second year students belong to the Spanish Club in which they learn about the ancient customs of Spain. Planning picnics and other activities are a part of the Spanish Club, too.

Foreign language clubs practice Roman and Spanish customs

LATIN CLUB

PRESIDENT — JIM MAZEPA
VICE PRESIDENT — MARY KAY NETZHAMM
SECRETARY — BARBARA BURDEN
TREASURER — MARIAN FRASECK

America isn't the only country in the world we know, but many people never have a chance to visit other countries. The students belonging to the Latin Club learn more about the cultural background and customs of the Romans. This adds variety to the study of Latin.

IO SATURNALIA, the annual supper for all Latin students, was held on December 19th. This is the big social event of the Latin Club.

In April, all Latin Clubs in the state may attend the Junior Classical League Conference at Butler University.

Ho-Hi Life's columns, style, ideas give new look to 8 big pages

Doug Spangler, first semester Editor-in-Chief, hands over the responsibilities of getting the Ho-Hi Life out to the student body to his successor for the second semester, Mary Mortin. Doug and Mary's ability combined with the editorial staff's and the reporters' cooperation and ability made this year's Ho-Hi Life what it was.

HO HI LIFE

What, when, where, why, and how—that's what the Ho-Hi Life strives to answer about all events taking place in Hobart High throughout the school year. This is accomplished by a capable editorial staff and a corps of cub reporters.

Each semester a new editor-in-chief is elected. This year the two persons receiving the honor were Doug Spangler and Mary Martin.

Under the supervision and guidance of their sponsor, Mr. DonSmall, the 1958 Ho-Hi Life staff publishes 16 tri-weekly editions of our eight-page school newspaper.

"Meet that deadline!" Famous last words to staff as time runs out

Is your section ready to go to press? It seemed like the answer was always no; but finally everything was completed and everyone could relax once more.

The yearbook is published annually, giving the students a reference to the events of the school year and recalling many memories. Many hours go into the preparation of a book of this sort. The editor-in-chief along with the senior editors, advertising staff, business staff, and photographers are the industrious workers who make MEMORIES as fine and delightful as possible.

Looking over an old yearbook from another school is a refreshing change at times. But the topic of discussion always comes back to the Hobart yearbook. Violet Guess, editor-in-chief; Jennie Speer, business manager; Dave Flinn and Bob Etter, advertising managers, talk about the huge task of getting MEMORIES to the press.

These senior editors of the 1958 MEMORIES, look on as Jacelyn Hahn, copy editor, is busily trying to meet a deadline.

Editors, photographers, business, and advertising staff members

The Junior editors of the yearbook not only assisted in getting this year's edition out, but also prepared themselves for the task of publishing the book next year. First row: Jerilynne Loyer, senior section; Marilyn Johnson, copy; Dolly Tsocios, clubs; Glorio Colloway, faculty; Mary Kay Netzhammer, seniors. Second row:

Janet Ross, clubs; Margaret Prentiss, events; Marjorie Gresser, copy; Sharon Bartos, underclass and Sondro Bryson, art. Not Shown: Nelson Lemon, sports; Marge Cismon, art; June LoFevre, classroom; Gib Robinson, activities.

"Wish there weren't so many pictures left to be taken!" It's nearing the end of the year and Dick Gerlich seems to be voicing this sentiment as he frowns at the camera. Hours of printing, developing, and snapping pictures were put in by these boys to-word the editing of this year's MEMORIES. Those looking on and who seem to agree whole-heartedly with Dick are Paul Boriz, Gordon Anderson, and Lorry Schoefer. Not shown: Lyle Motten.

combine efforts and abilities in getting MEMORIES 'to press'

Nelson Lemon watches Gerry Kopko as she marks a picture. Judy Ferkinhoff, Carol Kone, Betty Edgington, and Sue Remus are busily working on their own sections of the year-book.

"The work is nearly over," might be the thought behind the smiles of Jacelyn Hahn, secretary-treasurer, and Susan Shane, who was president of the conference this last year. The vice-president was Diane Porter from East Chicago Washington, where the conference will be held next year. Susan and Jacelyn, with the help of many girls and sponsors, had to plan the program, obtain a speaker, and send letters of invitation to participating schools in Lake County.

Hobart presented "The New Look" at the 1958 Lake County Girls' Conference, and it wasn't the newly-styled chemise that gave this talk its name. Miss Meyers, the guest speaker, told the girls attending the conference to take on a new look by looking at the brighter side of life and people.

Four hundred and forty-three girls from twenty-two Lake County high schools were in attendance. The only boy at the conference was Dick Gerlich, Hobart High School mayor, who welcomed the girls on behalf of the boys of Hobart.

The day's agenda featured Miss Meyers; discussion groups with such topics as make-up, marriage and school extra-curricular activities; a luncheon; and entertainment which included group singing, a style show presented by Calumet High School, and salos by Judy Boyd of Hobart and Marian Rhodes of Merrillville.

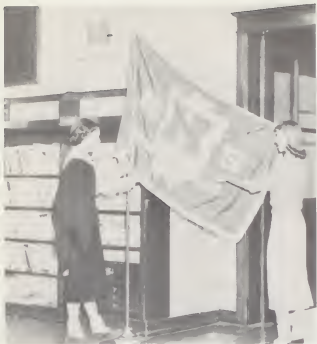

Lake County Girls' Conference makes home in Hobart this year

"Look for the good points of people," stated Miss Meyers. As head of the personnel department of General Electric, Miss Meyers told of her many experiences with people and also said that you can find many good points in everyone.

Dick Gerlich, as Mayor of Hobart High School, spoke a few brief words of introduction and welcomed all the girls to the 19th annual Lake County Girls' Conference. He made the statement, "I speak in behalf of all the boys in Hobart."

Judy Bjerkness looks at Dole Beach in surprise as Dole hands her his books. Yes, it was Turnabout Day, when the girls did deeds usually performed for them supposedly by the boys. Girls carried books, opened doors, and walked boys to classes.

Look what we have here! Habart High School now has a school flag which was purchased by the student council with the help of the many school clubs. The flag is to be raised at all football games beneath the American flag.

Dot Ahlgren and Phyllis Fiorantin look on with pride at our school's symbol.

School flag, Turn-about Day, Chess Club—varied activities at HHS

From the looks on the faces of these Chess Club members, something very amusing has just happened. However, once a game gets underway there is no time for smiles; the members play with a steady concentration that makes for a good game. Seated at the table are Bill Nowak, Peter Winske, Morvin Monteuffel, secretary; Harold Redar, and Ed Kupec. This club was newly organized this year, and Jim Mazepa was elected to the presidency.

We Saw, We'll Never Forget . . .

It can truthfully be said that this year we had a superb sports record set for our school.

Mr. Kurth, Athletic Director, saw his dream become a reality when the 1958 X-Country team won the State Championship at Indianapolis.

Equal praise and congratulations go to our great football team and coach who came through the season with nine wins and one loss, and to our basketball, baseball, and track teams and coaches who have earned a fine reputation.

We students can really be proud when we say "We're from Hobart!"

HARRIERS UNDEFEATED STATE CHAMPIONS

A dream of twelve years became a reality for Coach Frank Kurth and his harrier athletes when they annexed the 12th Annual Indiana High School Athletic Association Cross Country State Championship in Indianapolis on Saturday morning, November 2, 1957. The state championship was the first team title for Hobart in school history.

The Brickie harriers approached the state meet with a perfect record string of eleven victories and needed only the state title to stamp themselves as one of the finest groups of Hoosier schaalbay runners to race over hill-and-dale in the gruelling 2-mile test of athletic stamina. Challenging the Ha-Hi runners in the classic state meet were the perennial harrier kings of Anderson with 7 titles, Indianapolis Shartridge 2, and Muncie Central 1. All three teams were highly regarded hopefuls for a 12 crown.

Taking Hobart into the title throne room of the IHSAA were co captains Dan Hancock and Dick Morehouse, seniors; Ray Isakson, Dwain Crisp and Windell Claxton, Juniors. This five-same, groomed in long, hard workouts by Coach Kurth, dedicated their championship hopes on the trip home from their 9th place finish in 1956. Building poise and determination in summer training and confidence with an unbeaten record of regular scheduled meets, they were set for their title dream. All their hard work paid off when the scores were counted and the Hobart total of 87 points was law for the championship title. Muncie Central's 111 points was second and Indianapolis Shortridge was third with 123.

Official times and place finishes of the Brickie quintet of scaring runners in the title showdown were as follows: Don Hancock, 9:56.4 (3rd); Dick Morehouse, 10:04 (11th); Dwain Crisp, 10:17 (22nd); Ray Isakson, 10:18 (23rd); and Windell Claxton, 10:28 (28th). Jim and Jack Meade, Hobart 6th and 7th runners, whose point totals were not counted, placed 65th and 71st.

The feat of galloping through all their meets during the 1957 season for the unblemished record ranks as an all-time athletic achievement in the annals of Hobart sport history as a credit to desire and determination of the 1957 harriers.

Hobart's other near state championship efforts came in 1955 for a second place rank and in 1954 and 1950 when third place finishes were registered.

Dan Hancock's individual record times for the season marked him as the tap Hobart harrier of all time with his sub-ten-minute clackings. His best effort of 9:34.1 now stands as the cross country record, replacing his 9:53.0 mark in 1956.

Dwain Crisp, Ray Isakson and Windell Claxton remain as tri-captains for a powerful nucleus in another title attempt next year. Jim Meade, Ronald Martan, Jim Marler, and Rex Bell, varsity point scorers and major letter winners, should offer strong support in moving into the vacated spots of senior co-captains, Hancock and Morehouse.

As the Brickies hit the hot burning sands in the dust bowl on August 15, they knew it would take a great team to equal the team of '56, who won 8 and lost 1. The sun was blazing as the double-day practices, 5 days a week, began. The workouts clicked by, on toward the Whiting Oilers and the start of a great season.

The Brickies opened the season with the Whiting Oilers on the Brickies' own turf. The stands were packed as the mighty Brickies started off the season with a bang and a 20 to 7 win over a good Oiler team.

The Tornados of Emerson as usual came up with another good and rough team. But the Brickies again proved their ability as a rough Hobart team and shut-out the Tornados 19 to 0, on what looked and felt like a foot-deep mud field.

Griffith, undefeated up to the time they met the Brickies, were set back on their own field as the fighting Hobart team rolled off a 32 to 13 win and the Brickies charged on, undefeated.

Far the first time in the history of the school, the Brickies played for "Dad's Night" against the Panthers of Gary Raasevelt. At the half-time the Brickies' Dads weren't too happy, the Brickies trailing 2 to 0. But they came back for their Dads, Coach Deal and the roaring crowd behind them when they cracked the Panthers 13 to 2.

The Brickies were feeling high for the Homecoming Game with the Crown Paint Bulldogs. They dug in hard, but the Bulldogs proved they weren't a push-over as the Brickies eased by 20 to 7 for 5 wins in a row.

After being hit with the Asiatic flu, the Brickies came back to take a rousing win of 33 to 13 over the Tigers of Hammond Tech. This gave the Brickies 6 in a row.

The Brickies traveled to Michigan City on a muddy, slappy, and slippery night. The Red Devils received the opening kick-off and scored for a 7 to 0 lead. But the fighting Brickies sparked back to make it a fighting win of 22 to 18.

The Brickie Nightmare came as they met the state champions of the year, East Chicago Roosevelt. The hail and snow beat down on the two teams but the Rough Riders faught to a well-earned 27 to 0 win over the Brickie team that just couldn't get rolling.

The Brickies traveled to Huntington for their final game of the year and the last for the Seniors, who were lead by Co-Captains Dean Eickstead and Dick Gerlich. They put the team at their highest spirit of the year to set a new school record that smashed the Vikings with a 61 to 6 victory.

Dick Gerlich, Co-Captain, makes a smashing tackle on a Panther of Griffith. Lyle Hatten, 35, and Steve Raper, 40, came on to make the finish of the tackle. The Brickies won 32 to 13.

Big Steve Roper boots another extra point for the mighty Brickies against the Tornadoes of Emerson. Scott Wilson, 26, blacks out.

Bill Lundy boots extra point against Whiting with Bob Grovel holding for him. Hobart won 20 to 7.

Dean Eickstead, Co-Captain, All-State for 2nd year, starts on a reverse for his first of "24" touchdowns. Bill Lundy leads the way for the Iron-Man.

Carries 'um with him! Dean Eickstead, Hobart's burly left-half, carries unidentified Whiting Oiler with him, but Dean tears loose and races twenty-seven yards for another Brickie first down.

Hobart High School's 1957-58 Varsity Basketball team proves to be very promising. The Brickies are the only team in the area that is made up of all underclassmen. Front row, left to right: Dave Jordan, guard; Terry White, guard; Dwain Crisp, guard;

Brickie Basketball Team once more improves upon preceding

The Hobart Brickies, who last year won six games and lost fourteen, improved their record somewhat this season by winning seven and losing thirteen games. This year's varsity team was unusual because there were no seniors on it. It consisted of nine juniors and one sophomore.

The team started off the season with three disappointing losses. The first one was to Bishop Noll, 67 to 45 the second was to Hammond Clark, 61 to 43; and the third to Lew Wallace by one heartbreaking point, 55 to 54.

Then came our first win of the season. We defeated East Gary Edison on our own floor with a score of 54 to 44. Next, the Brickies met the Merrillville Pirates. Once again they were beaten by a one point margin, 39 to 38. We followed this up with our second victory which was over Gary Emerson. We racked up a winning score of 66 to 47.

With the Christmas holidays came the Merrillville Tourney in which Hobart lost their two games; the first to a good Calumet team, 50 to 30, and the second to Merrillville again, 54 to 53. The Brickies then went into the Portage Tourney which they won by defeating East Gary Edison, 62 to 49, and Hammond Morton, 52 to 44. Another win came when we defeated Crown Point on their floor with a lead of 14 points, 71 to 57.

Another losing streak came our way at this time and we lost four straight games: Lowell, 72 to 71; Wirt, 55 to 47; South Bend St. Joe, 72 to 47; and Griffith, 79 to 68.

Our last win of the season came when we defeated East Gary Edison for the third time this year in a close and hard-fought game; the score was 72 to 70.

The Brickies fell back somewhat this year in sectional play and lost their first game to Horace Mann, who was rated as one of the top fifteen teams in the state.

Jack Meade shows how he got plenty of jump balls this season. Jack is 6 ft. 5 in. tall so you can see why he can jump so high. Also in the picture are Kenny Bragg, Dwain Crisp, and John Stephens.

Dwain Crisp, Hobart Brickie guard, displays his form which made him high scorer of the team this year. This shot added two more points to the Brickie's score against Lowell.

The Brickies were really on the ball in this game. These Hobart players who are doing their best to play a good game are Terry White, Jim Meade, Dwain Crisp, shooting, and John Stephens.

"Which way did it go?" It seems as if these Brickies and Eagles of East Gary are asking this as they wait for a rebound of Dwain Crisp's shot. Pictured are Terry White and Jim Meade.

"Oh na you don't," says Jim Meade as an East Gary Eagle tries to get off a jump shot. John Stephens is in the background waiting to see who gets it.

SECTIONAL CHAMPIONS, TRACKMEN POST BANNER YEAR

Undeclared in their first nine outdoor meets of the season, Brickie Trackmen successfully hurdled their first obstacle to state championship honors by ringing up their first sectional championship in history as they copped the Gory IHSAA sponsored meet with a title oggrogate of 34 points. Gory Froebel with 32 points was runnerup, Gory Roosevelt took third with 28 points in the 17 school meet.

Dominated over a period of 51 years by Gory schools, Brickie trackmen offer being close to the title for several years, finally harbored their first track and field championship sectional meet for Coach Frank Kurth who has kept the Brickies near the pinnacle of title hopes for 18 years.

Ending the Gory reign of sectional championships with their 34 point total were the following athletes: Terry White, victor in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, 10 points; Don Honcock winner of mile run, 5 points; Chuck Vigland and Bill Lone tie for first in high jump, 5½ points; Dove Jordon and Bob Grovel tie for first in pole vault, 5½ points; Scott Wilson's fourth place in broad jump, 1 point; Dean Eickstead's fourth in 440 yord dosh, 1 point; and Terry White, John Stephens, Scott Wilson and Dean Eickstead, second place in 880 yord reloy, 6 points.

Rolling along in outdoor competition for an undeclared season in regular scheduled meets, the Brickie thincad athletes added trophies to their long list in the crowded trophy case with victories in the 18th Little Five Meet, the 3rd Culver Relays, the 26th Delphi Relays and the 3rd Hobort Relays. The sectional triumph climaxed the long sought after award.

This year's squad, powered mostly by junior lettermen, could surpass the outstanding achievements turned in this spring when they round out their athletic careers as seniors in 1959. Seniors doing their part for the great success in recording the 1958 victory skein include Scott Wilson, Bob Grovel, Dean Eickstead, Don Honcock and Dick Morehouse.

We'll Never Forget . . .

It is people that make up our life here at Hobart. It is people that cram our crowded halls and locker rooms; it's people who plan and participate in our activities; it's people who set the sports and scholastic records; and it is people who set the traditions here at Hobart High. Who are all these people? They are all of us who go here now, those who came before, and those who will follow.

We can truthfully say, "It's the people we'll never forget."

In order to measure Bruce Lambert for his commencement cap and gown, Borboro Thomas, co-chairman with Bruce Phillips of the cap and gown committee, has to stretch "up and beyond the call of duty."

high school career—Last commencement held in Brickie Bowl

"Hey, what dates are left open?" asks Judy Zimmerman as Jacelyn Hahn and Glenn Smith make use of the locker room bulletin board to sign up for their Senior picture appointments with Victor Studios.

"I get that old feeling"—Christmas feeling that is—seems to be the theme of this group of Senior girls as they decorate the school tree. Adding that "magic touch" are Libby Furnish, Martha Fetterer, Pat Wood, and Carol Schmelter.

Sweatshirt Day found these Seniors "adorning" their locker room. On the lockers are Carol Kane, Bruce Lombert and Karen Ward. Standing are Judy Ferkinhoff, Glenn Smith, Dorinne Klowitter, Nino Griffiths, Kenny Wilson, and Jocelyn Hohn.

"Twilight Time", theme of the frosh' class party, found Dick Pavel and Sharon Ramsey reigning as King and Queen. Refreshments, music, and dancing helped make the evening a success.

Refreshments went over big with the freshmen at their class party. When only a few empty bottles and cups remained, the kids decided they had had enough and went back to dancing.

Class locker rooms, parties, other events, prove crowded affairs

The theme and decoration committee for the Prom is shown here at one of its noon meetings. Margaret Prentiss, chairman, plus members of her committee decided that "Parisian Paradise" should be the theme for the "58" Prom.

The Junior Class sponsored one of the after-game dances held in the Roosevelt Gym. With not too much time for elaborate decorations and planning, the Juniors felt very pleased since it was enjoyed by all those who attended.

"Spring Fever" was the theme chosen by the Soph's for their class party. Shown here are Becky Griffiths, Solly Adams, and Judy Freeland, only a few who helped chairman, Lorry Rosenbaum, get the gym decorated for the big night.

The Sophomore locker room is surely a buzz of activity at the end of a school day. Caught in action are a few of the early-birds, anxious to get their belongings and go home after another day of school.

Mr. Arlie Kerr, Superintendent of schools, has worked hard toward getting a new high school for the students of Hobart. The new school, which is located near Lake George, will be completed by the fall of '58. Mr. Kerr received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Education at Ball State Teacher's College and later he received his Master's Degree at Indiana University. Since that time he has taken additional graduate work at Purdue University.

Due to constant efforts of Hobart High School Administration,

During the past year, Mr. Kerr, Superintendent of Hobart Schools, with the assistance of the Board of School Trustees, has re-evaluated the entire curriculum offered to students attending the Hobart schools. The object of this reevaluation was to discover ways of improving what is being taught and eventually improving how it is being taught.

One of the biggest projects of these administrators, of course, was the making of final plans toward the completion of the new high school building located on 10th Street near Lake George. Earlier this year a contract was signed with the Boyd Construction Company to install a storm sewer and also to level and fill in the area east of the structure. All the new furniture and equipment that will be needed in the new building has been purchased and it will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the school year of 1958.

Another step taken toward improving building facilities of the schools in Hobart was the addition of six classrooms at Ridge View School. Also, a survey was taken to find out whether Hobart could qualify for federal assistance in converting part of this, the old high school, into a junior high building.

There are committees now working toward the revision of the report cards that are given to students in elementary, junior, and senior high schools. It is not yet known when the results of their work will be completed and compiled.

A new class on public school finance and budget procedure was organized this year for teachers and was taught by Mr. Kerr. This was to help the teachers understand more about the financial background of schools, Hobart schools in particular.

The School Board and Mr. Kerr placed their approval on the new seventy minute periods which were first tried here at Hobart this year. These longer periods have proved, in many cases, to be very successful.

We know that in these few paragraphs we have only scratched the surface of the accomplishments and the many efforts that have been put forth this year by the School Board and Mr. Kerr. We hope, however, that we may have given you some idea of the work that is always being done behind the scenes and of the interest these administrators are taking in making the schools of Hobart better for you, the students.

Pictured from left to right are the members of the school board. They are: Harry Garmong, secretary; Mr. Arley Kerr, Superintendent of Hobart City Schools; Verne Elliott; Donald Sporre; Alice Hamilton, treasurer and Don Robinson, president. These members have spent many hours improving the school system and in making Hobart High a school from which students can be proud to have graduated. This year they have been kept especially busy in securing the final plans and arrangements for the new high school.

students will at last be entering new building in fall of '58

Mr. Eugene Wise, Director of Pupil Personnel, coordinates the attendance for the Hobart City Schools which includes the elementary schools, public, parochial, junior and senior high schools. He supervises the programs in special education, such as the home-bound, the mentally retarded, and those who have speech and hearing defects. Also, he represents the schools in juvenile court cases pertaining to delinquency and parental neglect.

During the six years that Mr. Harold Moody has been principal of Hobart High, he has worked diligently toward raising its standards and providing the students with a wider and more varied curriculum. Throughout the year he sends out questionnaires, taking polls of the student body, to discover their opinions on matters of importance to the school. These are compiled in the principal's office and the result announced over the public address system.

Mr. Moody holds a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Arts degree and he enjoys fishing and watching baseball.

And thus closes on ere 1957-58 has come and is almost gone.

Gone before it ore 80 other years of school life in a building erected in 1877, twelve years after Lincoln's assassination and one year following Custer's last stand. These were days before the Wright brothers were even thinking about such a thing as a "flying machine", before Edison invented the electric lamp, and before "old-fashioned" radio was born.

Gone before it ore thousands of boys and girls, growing into adulthood, scattering to all corners of the earth, and reaching into fields of distinction and honor. Many have completed their lives and have passed into eternity.

Now the building, too, has come to the end of its life of service to Hobart youth and must soon pass into oblivion. The high-ceiling rooms, the creaky stairways, the old-fashioned doors and windows, the nor-

Miss Dorothy Thompson, Vice-Principal, is in charge of all class and student council activities. She is the only sponsor of the student council and she helps the Mayor and Clerk-Treasurer to prepare the agenda for each meeting. This year she was responsible for helping the student council plan the Senior Government Day, the Leadership Conference, and the Talent Show, all of which have become annual events at Hobart High School.

raw, cracked hallways, and the dismal lights are to be no more. The old, favorite places and the haunts of many memories of fun and laughter will live only in the imaginations and memories of those who experienced them.

It is not without a slight twinge of sadness that we say, "Goodbye, you have served us very well!"

An new begins an era

A new, modern, and carefully planned million and one-half dollar structure on the shores of Lake George is rapidly farming into the most beautiful building in the City of Hobart. With rooms of colorful warmth, with wide, spacious hallways, with the most modern furniture and equipment, we look forward with eagerness and excitement to the coming years and hope they offer golden opportunities to every boy and every girl who enters the doors of the new

HOBART SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Harald Maady, Principal

Mr. Marion Bailey, Guidance Director, has done much for the students during the years he has been at Hobart High. He sees to it that all freshmen take aptitude, personality, and special interest tests to help determine what their objectives will be in high school. Besides teaching a government and economics class he advises students who need special counseling. He also gives tests to the seniors to see how much they have improved during their four years in high school, and he advises them on college requirements and in choosing a vocation.

students each year

Mrs. Annabelle Shone, Dean of Girls, uses her wise judgment in dealing with the girls' attendance and discipline problems. She also teaches a freshman algebra class and is the head sponsor of the Debuttees Club.

Mr. Russell Deol, Dean of Boys, is in charge of the boys attendance and takes care of their discipline problems. Along with teaching a health and safety class he has once again done a fine job of coaching our football team.

good condition by able corps of office girls, janitors, and cooks

Sheila Miller, secretary, and Adele McOmber, bookkeeper, look on as the executive secretary, Mildred Lenburg, continues working. These girls are kept constantly busy while working in the superintendent's office which is the center of activity of the Hobart City School.

Mrs. Pauline Mergl, secretary, and Miss Pat Loomis, bookkeeper, help keep the high school's business in smooth running order with their efficient work. They also assist the students by answering their endless questions.

Pictured is Mr. George Schnobel, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds. The duties of Mr. Schnobel are to see that the school grounds and buildings are kept in good condition. He is also the overseer of the custodians.

The coterie staff is kept busy preparing wholesome and delicious meals for the Senior High School students as well as the Junior High. They are Emma Schrock and Rose Dykhuis. Not shown: Clara Groff.

New Hobart High School building

This is the structure in which the approximately 800 students attending Habart High School will make their new home next year. There will be only the sophomore, junior, and senior classes there instead of the four that have made up Hobart High in the past.

The Brickie teams and gym classes are especially looking forward to the new gym. Besides seating as many as 2800 spectators, the new gym will provide a better playing floor for our basketball teams in future years. Also, it will provide the gym students with boys' and girls' shower rooms and the girls will be glad to learn that hair dryers are also being installed.

The classrooms will all be made with space to spare, and same, such as the science rooms, will give the students a chance to learn and study with the finest and most up-to-date equipment.

In every one of the rooms, acoustical tiling is to be installed. This tile will improve the sound quality produced in the class.

The lighting effects will prove more than adequate for the students and faculty as it pours from the overhead light fixtures and through the more than 100 windows of the new building.

This structure is a far cry from the one in which we are now attending classes. Its spaciousness, beauty, and conveniences are beyond words. We will walk through halls with enough elbow room, attend classes with enough seating space, and view games with comfort. We shall have reason to be proud and respect our new surroundings.

This new building will give us many advantages in helping Hobart High grow in stature and in name. We should make use of these advantages to their utmost possibilities—it's up to us to add to the achievements that Habart students have made in the past.

makes debut in fall of '58

This is the new modern gym where Hobart will play its home basketball games next year. Brickie fans will be glad to know that it seats about 2800. Shown are the doors at the west end.

Fine cleaning service - modern plant-latest in equipment and process.

Serving Hobart and Community for 25 years.

Located on 3rd Street opposite beautiful Lake George
TWO TRUCKS TO SERVE YOU!!!
Pick-up and Delivery Service.

Shopping? The merchants of Hobart welcomed these Hobas into their stores on February 14th, probably feeling that they could easily make use of the bargains the stores had to offer.

These students and others like them enthusiastically support the merchants of Hobart.

what's their future

The young people you see in these pictures are all on their way to successful careers in one of America's basic industries . . . steel. They decided (as we hope you will decide) to let Inland Steel Company help them plan their future.

Some are gaining knowledge and experience in special trades to become journeyman machinists, carpenters or electricians . . . some are concentrating on certain phases of steelmaking by working in the open hearth shops, the cold rolling mills or the galvanizing lines. Still others are working in laboratories building a sound foundation for a future in steel research.

Inland offers the high school graduate an excellent opportunity to further his education. Employees may participate in a variety of on-the-job training programs, or they can continue their formal education by registering for evening courses offered by local Purdue and Indiana University Extension Centers.

Plan now to investigate the unlimited opportunities for you in steel . . . with the midwest's own steel company . . . INLAND STEEL.
